STATE COLLECTS $9,000,000 IN TAX ON CORPORATIONS

Comptroller Glynn Increases Receipts More than $1,000,-000, Despite Hard Times.

(Special to The Evening World.)

sum, he says, is $1,000,000 more than any other Comptroller has collected in the PRETTY LABOR DAY WEDDING.

"This increase has been effected under a heavy handicap," declares the list during the past cwelve months owing to failures and business depression, ing to failures and business depression, in the face of a shrinkage from previous years in the tax on trust companies of $230,000, owing to a depreciation in the value of their securities, growing out of tast fail's panic; despite a failing off of over $50,000 in the tax on foreign bankers and fees from the fail of the pridegroom. Immediately after the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served, after which the happy young couple left for a honeymoon through the South.

tal stock of telephone and telegraph companies, and also a loss of $48,784 under the operation of Section 18.—C of the first time this year.

"While the collections of other years have been made under prosperous business conditions, those of this year were made under prosperous business conditions, those of this year were made under prosperous business or earnings and reduced dividends, as well as depreciated values. Careful work in the Comptroller's office unearthed a large number of corporations that have paid no taxes for periods ranging from two to thirteen years. These delinquent corporations were all made to settle within the strict letter or the law, and the payment of their back taxes went a long way toward making up the increase. In addition to this, legal actions were begun against nearly 1,200 different corporations to compel a payment of taxes.

"The Comptroller's Department has been most diligent also in requiring each corporation to pay its full share of taxes, making rigid investigations to ascertain whether complete and adequate information was furnished in each instance to form the basis of taxetton.
